- 13. On three successive evenings the sound of shooting could be heard from the LVD barracks in Leipzig. No official or unofficial explanations for these shootings was forthcoming. In previous cases when similar shootings have taken place, the Russians have officially announced that desorters or soldiers guilty of crimes against the Germans were shot.
- 14. During the first fortnight in August 1947 rumors circulated in Leipzig to the effect that Russian officers there had mutinied because they were being transferred with their troops and separated from their families.

 A large number of Russian officers in Leipzig were indeed suddenly arrested during the second week in August and were taken eastwards.

 Russian wives of the arrested officers have all stated that they do not know what has happened to their husbands.
- 15. Hagdeburg (V-60): The following streets in Hagdeburg were evacuated of their residents early in August 1947: Jerichoerstragse, Ragunerstrasse, Berlinerstrasse, Clemensstrasse, Schutzenhaus, Moustadter Eisenbahnstrasse, Hundlos-Siedlung.
- 16. Halberstadt (D-27): The arrival of 6,000 Russian troops was expected in Halberstadt early in August 1947.
- 17. Voimar (J-47): Dwellings have been requisitioned in the following suburbs of Jeimar: Penziger Jaldchen, Belvedere, and Ober-Jeimar.
- 18. Zeitz (KO8): Since 1 August 1947 the Friedrich Engels Bridge over the River Elster at Zeitz has been in use again.
